

BTG Interventional Oncology is committed to improving patient outcomes and experience with minimally invasive, personalised solutions.

INTERVENTIONAL ONCOLOGY WEBINAR SERIES

DON'T MISS OUR INTERACTIVE WEBINARS where expert speakers will focus on the latest techniques and clinical evidence in Interventional Oncology.

Locoregional Treatment for Liver Limited Stage 4 Colorectal Cancer

Mr Robert Jones Surgical Oncologist, University of Liverpool, UK

- Management of liver limited metastatic colorectal cancer
- An overview of the role of surgery, systemic chemotherapy, ablation and embolisation in this patient group
- To understand the potential treatment algorithms

THURS 25TH
APRIL 2019
17:00 BST*
18:00 CEST*

CLICK HERE
TO REGISTER

* BST: British Summer Time CEST: Central European Summer Time (BST+1)

Robert Jones is a Surgical Oncologist from the University of Liverpool with a special interest in hepatobiliary and pancreatic malignancies. His main research interests are focussed on optimising multidisciplinary decision making around advanced colorectal cancer, non-surgical liver-directed therapies as well as better methods of identifying patients who may benefit from surgical resection for metastatic disease – so called “precision surgery”.